accepted without enquiry from any one paying same.

5. Exclusive privilege in this case was originally granted to the Lindlyte Company and it went into liquidation 1903 and its property and rights were assigned to the Lindlyte and Machinery Ltd

6 In the accompanying file relating to the question of assignment it was ordered to get the deed of assignment stamped as desired by messrs Remfry & Son and to supply reference the same to the Party.

7. By this it is not clear whether the assignment and consequently the Change of address were formally recognized Unless it is done, it is not known whether the renewal fee on behalf of the assignee can be accepted.

8. But in January last, the first renewal fee was accepted then there was no question of assignment.
